

next:

next: is a statement
next: is a question
next: reminds us that we always stand
at a crossroads,
that we are all poets,
all philosophers,
the makers and keepers
of our own dreams,
that we bring wine to our friends that we might share both wine and words together, folded into a moment
on the edge of the next.

Tasting Notes

Color: Medium garnet color with bright highlights.

Nose: Fresh, crushed red fruit aromas mingle with ripe cherry and cane berry that are nicely offset by hints of sweet cola.

Palate: Seamless entry and smooth textures underlie the burst of bright pie cherry and raspberry flavors that emerge on the mid-palate. Accessible and ready for immediate enjoyment, this Pinot Noir is open and friendly - yet it finishes firmly, with a parting caress of subtle, fine tannins that cleanse the palate and frame the core of ripe fruit.

Recommended pairings: A fine, medium weight pinot noir for everyday drinking, this versatile wine will vastly improve a humble burger or simple pasta dish, but it is an ideal partner for salmon, especially Chinook. Try also with rabbit or various charcuterie and soft cheeses.